) No. CV-10-00027-JLQ

) TEMPORARY RESTRAINING
) ORDER and ORDER TO SHOW ) CAUSE

13 This matter came regularly on for hearing on the United States's Ex Parte Motion 14 For Temporary Restraining Order including the request of the United States that this 15 Temporary Restraining Order be issued without prior notice to the Defendant. The court 16 has considered and accepted the submittals by the United States of the history of the 17 Defendant having filed frivolous action and liens against officers of the United States, 18 including federal judicial officers, and the risk that the Defendant may continue in such 19 actions, if not restrained immediately. The court has determined that the submittals of 20 the Government establish that the Defendant has retaliated and attempted to retaliate 21 against federal officials involved in the collection of taxes allegedly owing by the 22 Defendant. Based thereon, the court has determined that it is appropriate to issue this 23 Temporary Restraining Order without notice to the Defendant, subject to the Defendant's 24 right to request an early hearing as to why this Temporary Restraining Order should not 25 continue in effect and subject further to the Defendant's right to show cause why the 26 Restraining Order should not be made permanent pending conclusion of this action.
